

Introducing.... Slot Classes

To be held in conjunction with the EOQHA Futurity Show September 10, 11, and 12 2010 at the Ohio Expo Center Coliseum in Columbus, Ohio

Slot classes are 'on sale' until June 1, 2010

Slots belong to the purchaser – and that person must then either be the horse owner or the exhibitor.

Horse and exhibitor for each slot must be declared by September 10 of each year.

Slots cannot be resold in 2010. Should the program continue beyond this year, slot owners will get first option to purchase future year's slots. They, in turn, can resell those future slots up until June 1 of each year.

A total of 20 slots must be sold for each class to maintain the payouts listed below. If 20 slots are not sold by June 1, those who have purchased a slot will be contacted and will get a vote as to whether they wish to continue with the class and alter the payouts to a percentage of the purse or they wish to cancel the class and get a refund. A simple majority determines the outcome of each situation.
